

Jeremy Perl Head of Markets and Interim General Manager, Rabobank UK

Jeremy Perl is the Head of Markets UK and Interim General Manager of Rabobank UK. He has been at the bank for 10 years. Within his Markets role he heads the London trading floor and capital markets activities, which provide risk management (interest rate, foreign exchange, commodities) and financing solutions (loan and bond financing) for Rabobank's wholesale and financial institution clients in addition to the broader responsibility for the branch.

Additional Jeremy is a member of the Global Markets Management Team and takes responsibility for driving inclusion initiatives globally within Markets.

Jeremy joined the bank in 2014 as the Regional Head of Loan Syndications based in London, but working throughout Europe. Prior to Rabobank, Jeremy worked at Lloyds Bank in the UK and the Netherlands, in various senior roles across Leveraged Finance, Corporate Loan Capital Markets, Equity Capital Markets, Private Equity (Lloyds Development Capital) and relationship management roles.

Jeremy has spent over 30 years in banking and holds a BA Hons Economics (Economic Studies) from the University of Leeds.
